Divine Revelation: Surah Al-Ahzab and scientific miracles

Topics: Surah Al-Ahzab (1–20) – Aql and Naql – Abstinence (Isti'faf) – Scientific miracles in the Qur'an – Etiquette of dialogue.

1. List the rulings mentioned in verses 1–8.

> Fear Allah and do not obey the disbelievers and hypocrites; follow revelation and trust Allah; zihar does not make a wife a mother; adoption does not change lineage – call children by their fathers' names; the Prophet ﷺ is closer to believers than themselves and his wives are their mothers; relatives have priority in inheritance.

2. What factors led the tribes to unite against Madinah?

> Quraysh's hatred of Islam, the incitement of the Jews of Banu Nadir, and the tribes' wish to destroy the Muslims.

3. Interpret verses 9–20 briefly.

> Allah reminds the believers of His favour when the armies came and He sent a wind and unseen soldiers; it describes the fear, the hypocrites' excuses and weakness, and the true believers' firmness.

4. Scientific miracles must be based on:

- ● Proven scientific facts
- ○ Changing theories

5. Compare scientific miracles with scientific exegesis.

> Scientific miracle: a proven fact mentioned in the Qur'an before science discovered it. Scientific exegesis: explaining verses using scientific knowledge, which may include theories that can change.

6. Identify the benefits of scientific miracles.

> They strengthen faith, show that the Qur'an is from Allah, encourage research and invite non-Muslims to Islam.

Islamic Belief: Aql and Naql

1. What is the relationship between reason (aql) and revelation (naql)?

> They complete each other: sound reason understands revelation, and revelation guides reason in what it cannot know alone, like the unseen.

2. Why does Islam challenge the intellect?

> To make people think, discover the truth by evidence, and reach faith with conviction.

Islamic Values: Abstinence and the etiquette of dialogue

1. What is the concept of isti‘faf?

> Keeping oneself chaste and away from what is forbidden, and not asking people while in need.

2. Clarify the domains of isti‘faf.

> In wealth (not taking what is not yours), in desires (chastity until marriage), and in not begging from people.

3. Specify the manners and benefits of good listening.

> Look at the speaker, do not interrupt, understand before replying. Benefits: understanding, respect, fewer mistakes and gaining knowledge.

4. Explain the characteristics of a good debater.

> Sincerity, knowledge, calmness, humility, respect for others and using evidence.
