مراجعة الصف الثاني عشر – Grade 12 Revision – Islamic Studies

Divine Revelation: Surah An-Nur and divine laws

Topics: Surah An-Nur (1–20) – Separation between spouses – The Prophet ﷺ and social life – Divine laws – The five purposes of Islamic legislation.

1. List the rulings mentioned in verses 1–10.

The punishment for zina; the punishment for slander (qadhf): 80 lashes and rejecting the slanderer's testimony unless he repents; the ruling of li'an between spouses.

2. What was the incident of "ifk"?

A false accusation against Aisha (RA) spread by the hypocrites after a journey; Allah revealed verses declaring her innocence.

3. Why do rumours spread quickly?

Because people pass news without checking, out of curiosity or bad intentions, and through social media.

4. What is the concept of divine laws (sunan)?

The fixed laws Allah set for the universe and human life; they are constant, apply to everyone, and help us plan and learn from history.

Islamic Rulings: Separation between spouses and the five purposes

1. Analyse the message of «وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَكُم مَّوَدَّةً وَرَحْمَةً» (Ar-Rum 21).

Marriage is a sign of Allah built on tranquillity, love and mercy.

2. Define the types of separation with their 'iddah.

Revocable divorce ('iddah: three menstrual cycles, or three months); irrevocable divorce; khul' (separation at the wife's request with compensation); the 'iddah of a pregnant woman ends with delivery.

3. Infer the methods of preserving the five purposes of Shari'ah.

Religion: worship and da'wah. Life: forbidding killing and setting qisas. Mind: forbidding intoxicants and encouraging knowledge. Lineage: marriage and forbidding zina. Wealth: lawful earning and forbidding theft and riba.

4. Put the five essentials in order:

Religion Life Mind Lineage Wealth

Seerah: The Prophet ﷺ and social life

1. Quote events that show the Prophet's ﷺ keenness on a coherent society.

> Brotherhood between the Muhajirun and Ansar; building the mosque together; digging the trench with the companions; visiting the sick and greeting children.

2. Assess the strategies the Prophet ﷺ used to strengthen social relations.

> Spreading salam, joining family ties, honouring neighbours, cooperation, justice and mercy.

3. Find a link between communal peace and the development of an Islamic state.

> Peace and unity let people work, learn and build; division weakens the state.
