1. Surah As-Sajdah was revealed in:

● Makkah ○ Madinah

2. «تَنزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ» means the Qur'an:

● Has no doubt in it ○ Was written by people ○ Is only stories

3. What should a Muslim do when he recites a verse of prostration (sajdah)?

● Perform the prostration of recitation (Sujud at-Tilawah) ○ Stop reading ○ Nothing

4. Allah created the heavens and the earth in six days. A lesson we learn is:

● Patience and doing things step by step ○ Rushing our work ○ Nothing

5. Make a mind map of Surah As-Sajdah: facts, period of revelation and main theme.

> Makki surah, 30 verses, named after the verse of prostration (v.15). Main theme: the Qur'an is the true Book from Allah, the oneness and power of Allah in creation, the creation of man, resurrection, and the different fate of believers and disbelievers.

6. List five lessons from verses 13–19 that you can apply in your life.

> Believers prostrate and glorify Allah when reminded; they are humble, not arrogant; they pray at night and call on Allah with fear and hope; they spend from what Allah gives them; believers and sinners are not equal, so I choose obedience to earn Paradise.

7. How should Muslims face distress or challenges?

> With patience, prayer and du'a, trust in Allah (tawakkul), taking practical steps, and remembering that Allah rewards the patient.

8. Enumerate the features of the Qur'an.

> It is from Allah, the Lord of the worlds; it has no doubt; it is the truth; it guides people and warns them; it is protected from change.

9. Compare the qualities and rewards of believers and disbelievers.

> Believers: prostrate, glorify Allah, humble, pray at night, spend in charity → gardens of Paradise.
> Disbelievers: arrogant, deny the signs and the meeting with Allah → the Fire.

Divine Revelation: A recommendation of the Prophet ﷺ

"O boy! I will teach you some words: Be mindful of Allah and He will protect you. Be mindful of Allah and you will find Him before you. If you ask, ask Allah; if you seek help, seek help from Allah…" (At-Tirmidhi)

1. Who narrated this Hadith?

- Ibn Abbas (RA) ○ Abu Hurairah (RA) ○ Anas (RA)

2. "Be mindful of Allah" means:

- Obey His commands and avoid what He forbids ○ Forget prayer ○ Depend only on people

3. If you need help, the Hadith tells you to:

- Seek help from Allah ○ Rely only on friends ○ Give up

4. List the Prophet's ﷺ recommendations in the Hadith.

> Be mindful of Allah; ask Allah alone; seek help from Allah alone; know that nothing benefits or harms you except what Allah has written.

5. Define tawakkul and its benefits.

> Tawakkul: relying on Allah while taking the means. Benefits: peace of mind, courage, less worry and fear, and patience when things go wrong.

Islamic Rulings: Obligatory, voluntary and disliked acts of prayer

1.

Obligatory (Fard)	Voluntary (Sunnah)	Disliked (Makruh)

Reciting Al-Fatiha	Raising the hands at Takbir	Yawning without covering the mouth
Ruku' and Sujud	Saying "Sami'a Allahu liman hamidah"	Playing with clothes

2. If a person leaves an obligatory act of prayer:

- The prayer is not valid unless he does it ○ The prayer is fine ○ He only needs to smile

3. If a person forgets a sunnah act of prayer:

- The prayer is valid (he may do sujud as-sahw) ○ The prayer is invalid

4. Write the steps of Salah.

> Intention → Takbirat al-Ihram → recite Al-Fatiha and a surah → ruku‘ → stand up → two sujud with sitting between → repeat for each rak‘ah → tashahhud → tasleem.
