مراجعة الصف السابع – Grade 7 Revision – Islamic Studies

Divine Revelation: Surah Qaf (1–12)

Topics: Surah Qaf (1–12) Resurrection – Sunan Al-Fitrah – Ghusl and Tayammum – The seven in the shade of Allah – The Battle of the Confederates (Al-Ahzab). Memorisation: Surah Ar-Rahman (1–25).

1. What is the central theme of Surah Qaf?

> Resurrection after death and proving Allah's power to bring the dead back to life.

2. The attitude of the people of Makkah towards the Prophet's call was:

- They wondered and denied resurrection
- ○ They accepted it at once

3. What does "Qaf" signify? How many surahs begin with disjointed letters?

> Qaf is one of the disjointed (muqatta'ah) letters that show the miracle of the Qur'an; 29 surahs begin with them.

4. Define polytheists.

> People who worship others along with Allah.

5. What is the similarity between resurrection and the growing of plants?

> Allah sends rain on dead land and it comes back to life with plants; in the same way He will bring the dead out of their graves.

Islamic Rulings: Sunan Al-Fitrah, Ghusl and Tayammum

1. Match:

Wudu	Washing specific body parts to purify oneself for worship
Ghusl	Washing the whole body to purify oneself
Tayammum	Dry ablution using clean earth
Taharah	Being clean and pure for worship
Sunan Al-Fitrah	Islamic ways of cleanliness and personal grooming

2. Write the situations in which dry ablution (tayammum) is allowed.

> When there is no water, when water is not enough or needed for drinking, or when using water would cause harm or illness.

3. Mention the steps of tayammum and its obligatory acts.

> Intention, say Bismillah, strike clean earth with the palms, wipe the face, then wipe the hands. Obligatory: intention, wiping the face and the hands.

4. Tayammum becomes invalid when:

● Water is found ○ The prayer ends ○ The person sits down

5. Write acts of personal grooming from the Sunnah (Sunan Al-Fitrah).

> Using the miswak, trimming the moustache, cutting the nails, rinsing the mouth and nose, removing underarm hair.

6. Explain the benefits of Sunan Al-Fitrah for the individual and society.

> Cleanliness, good health and a nice appearance for the individual; a clean, healthy and respectful society.

Divine Revelation: The seven in the shade of Allah

1. List three of the seven people whom Allah will shade on the Day of Judgement.

> A just ruler, a young person who grew up worshipping Allah, a person whose heart is attached to the mosques (also: two who love each other for Allah, one who gives charity secretly, one who remembers Allah alone and weeps, one who refuses sin out of fear of Allah).

2. Explain what it means to love someone for the sake of Allah.

> To love him because he obeys Allah and does good, not for money or benefit.

3. Why will a young person who grows up worshipping Allah be shaded?

> Because youth is a time of strength and desires, and choosing obedience then is great.

4. Why is weeping in private while remembering Allah a sign of true faith?

> Because it is sincere and not to show off to people.

Seerah: The Battle of the Confederates (Al-Ahzab)

▶ Watch: The Battle of Al-Ahzab (the Trench): https://youtu.be/sr6HS1yT3C4

1. Who suggested digging the trench?

○ Umar (RA) ● Salman Al-Farisi (RA) ○ Ali (RA)

2. The Confederates were about:

○ 1,000 fighters ● 10,000 fighters ○ 300 fighters

3. Describe the strategic importance of the trench.

> It stopped the large army from entering Madinah, protected the city and forced a siege that weakened the enemy.

4. What lessons can we learn about innovation and defence?

> Taking advice (shura), using new ideas, teamwork, patience and trusting Allah while taking the means.

5. Discuss a miraculous event in the Battle of the Trench.

> The Prophet ﷺ broke a huge rock the companions could not break; the food of Jabir (RA) fed the whole army; and Allah sent a strong wind that made the Confederates leave.

6. Analyse the leadership of the Prophet ﷺ in the battle.

> He consulted his companions, dug with them, encouraged them and shared their hunger, and stayed calm and trusted Allah.
